

The University of Tennessee
School of Music
Notice of Faculty Vacancy

POSITION	Teacher of Trombone.
RANK AND SALARY	Assistant Professor; Nine-month tenure-track appointment beginning August 1, 2016. Salary and fringe benefits are competitive and commensurate with rank and experience.
QUALIFICATIONS	Doctorate or equivalent professional profile required. Demonstrated success in college-level teaching as well as a consistent well-rounded record of professional experience and national visibility as a performer required. While the primary focus of the position is classical trombone performance and instruction, experience and demonstrable skill in jazz are strongly desired.
RESPONSIBILITIES	Teach trombone to undergraduate and graduate trombone majors/minors in lessons and solo classes. Work closely with University band, orchestra, and jazz band directors concerning the placement and performance of trombone students within the ensembles. Work closely with brass faculty regarding brass studio class, recitals, hearings and juries, and perform in the faculty brass quintet. Additional teaching responsibilities may include coaching chamber music and teaching courses in candidate's areas of interest and abilities. Responsible for effective trombone student recruitment, creative/scholarly activity, and service contributions appropriate for a university faculty member.
GENERAL INFORMATION	The University of Tennessee is the state's flagship institution, offering comprehensive programs of undergraduate, graduate, and professional education, research, and public service throughout the state. The campus at Knoxville is the only public institution in the state with the Carnegie classification of "doctoral/research university-extensive." The campus offers more than 300 degree programs to its 26,000 students, who come from every county in Tennessee, every state in the nation, and more than 100 foreign countries. The Knoxville campus of the University of Tennessee is seeking candidates who have the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the diversity and intercultural goals of the University.
SCHOOL OF MUSIC of	The School of Music is part of the College of Arts & Sciences and has a long and successful history of quality and commitment to excellence. The school offers a broad and comprehensive professional music program at both the undergraduate and graduate levels and is an accredited institutional member of the National Association Schools of Music. The school has 55 faculty members and approximately 350 music majors.
APPLICATION	Send letter of application (no email applications), at least three current (within last 12 months) letters of recommendation as well as a list of at least three additional references, curriculum vitae, and a recent CD and/or DVD recording of representative repertoire (indicating dates of performance) to: Secretary, Trombone Search Committee The University of Tennessee 117 Natalie L. Haslam Music Center Knoxville, TN 37996-2600

Additional materials may be requested at a later date.

DEADLINE: October 21, 2015, or until position is filled.

All qualified applicants will receive equal consideration for employment and admissions without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, physical or mental disability, or covered veteran status. Eligibility and other terms and conditions of employment benefits at The University of Tennessee are governed by laws and regulations of the State of Tennessee, and this non-discrimination statement is intended to be consistent with those laws and regulations. In accordance with the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, The University of Tennessee affirmatively states that it does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, or disability in its education programs and activities, and this policy extends to employment by the University. Inquiries and charges of violation of Title VI (race, color, and national origin), Title IX (sex), Section 504 (disability), ADA (disability), Age Discrimination in Employment Act (age), sexual orientation, or veteran status should be directed to the Office of Equity and Diversity (OED), 1840 Melrose Avenue, Knoxville, TN 37996-3560, telephone (865) 974-2498. Requests for accommodation of a disability should be directed to the ADA Coordinator at the Office of Equity and Diversity.