

Time to Celebrate
November 4, 2007 4:00PM Cox Auditorium

This special program celebrates the music of living composers and features two world premieres! Don't miss the opportunity to hear music of our time, as well as meet some of the featured composers who will be present for the performance.

Salvum fac populum tuum

Charles-Marie Widor
(1844-1937)

John Brock, organ; Brass Faculty

Fantasia in F Minor, Op. 103

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

Patricia Carter and David Brunell, piano

Winter Apples

Katherine Freiberger

Marjorie Bennett Stephens, soprano; Lorraine DiSimone, mezzo-soprano
Phylis Secrist, oboe; Fay Adams, piano

Toccatà, Aria, and Fugue

Mark Harrell
(b. 1965)

Wesley Baldwin, violoncello; Calvin Smith, horn
Keith McClelland, bassoon

COFFEE AND TEA INTERLUDE

Lullaby*

Mark Douglass
(b. 1974)

Emily Douglass, soprano; Mark Douglass, percussion
Jamie Hackney, percussion

Two Medieval Miniatures*

James Carlson
(b. 1970)

Phylis Secrist, oboe; Wesley Baldwin, violoncello

Four Outings

Andre Previn
(b. 1929)

- I. Moderato
- II. Blues tempo
- III. Slowly
- IV. Vivace

Cathy Leach, trumpet; Lindsey Jessick, trumpet
Calvin Smith, horn; Dan Cloutier, trombone
W. Sande MacMorran, tuba

*World premiere